TEQUILA

SILVER: Clear spirit aged no more than 60 days in stainless steel tanks, if they are aged at all. Typically used in mixers with fruit based drinks and shots.

REPOSADO: meaning “rested”, aged in wood tanks or casks for a minimum of 2 months, however, higher qualities age between 3 and 9 months. Robust in flavor and excellent as a sipper.

ANEJO: meaning “old”, aged in French oak and often used Bourbon barrels for a minimum of 1 year, however, the best are aged between 18 months and 4 years. Dark and robust in flavor, best enjoyed in a snifter to appreciate its aroma.
